Dear Friends at Jillary Jewelry:

On behalf of the Stony Brook Foundation, thank you for your $500.00 2005 calendar year contribution to Sweet Dreams 2006.

Commitments like yours help Stony Brook University to provide comprehensive high-quality education to our students, carry out significant scientific and medical research, provide first-rate patient and nursing care, and serve our region as a leader for economic, technological, and cultural growth. The generosity of donors like you helps our University to thrive as one of our nation's finest public research universities.

Thank you again, and we hope that you will continue to support Stony Brook University and its many deserving students and programs.

Sincerely,
